
Across the USA

News from every state

New Hampshire: Concord – Starting this month, fans of the state tourism department's Facebook page will get travel and tourism discounts. More than 1,500 people have registered as fans of the VisitNH page since it was created in late July. The Division of Travel and Tourism Development has been using the page to post photos, videos and other information about the state.
