

WORK & CAREERS

Employment News • Job Trends • Workplace Issues

November 6, 2011 • NEW HAMPSHIRE SUNDAY NEWS • Page D3

MYPN names board

MANCHESTER — The Manchester Young Professionals Network has welcomed four new members to its board of directors.

New board members include: Jamie Coughlin

of the abi Innovation Hub; Christine Elston

of the Social Security Administration;

Karen Hewes of Hewes Law Offices; and

Kate Luczko of Stay Work Play.

MYPN has also announced the 2011-2012 MYPN Executive Committee: Preston Hunter of

Eckman Construction, chair; Colleen

Karpinsky of McLane, Graf, Raulerson & Middleton, P.A., vice chair; Eric

Walker of Catholic Medical Center, treasurer; Jeannette Riendeau of Wiggin & Nourie, P.A., secretary; and E.J. Powers of Montagne Communications, immediate past-chair.

MYPN was formed in 2004 as a business and community support group.

For more information visit: www.mypn.org.

LUCZKO

HEWES

COUGHLIN

ELSTON